I. Enemy Ground Forces Korea:

	Chinese	Korean	Total
Armistice	883,000	286,000	1,169,000
At Present	712,000	346,000	1,058,000
Difference	-171,000	+ 60,000	- 111,000

On 5 September, Radio Peiping announced that 7 Chinese divisions will be withdrawn from Korea in September and October. If these are infantry divisions, this will mean approximately 115,000 men. If they are artillery divisions (4,000 - 6,000 men) the number will be considerably less.

II. UN Ground Forces Korea:

	US-UN	Korean	Total
Armistice	335,000 (US ?)	561,000	896,000
At Present	270,000 (240,000 US)	645,000	915,000
Difference	- 65,000	+ 84,000	+ 19,000

G-2 has no definite idea on how many troops will be involved in the four division withdrawal scheduled for this year. They are assuming that two-thirds of the present US strength will be withdrawn (160,000 men), since 4 of the 6 divisions now in Korea will leave.
